

The Supernatural Character of Coming Days - Part 1 Joseph Herrin (03-04-09)

I have recently shared that no matter how much the people of God prepare for the coming days of difficulty, they will find that natural provision is inadequate to see them through. When man's resources fail the unlimited resources of God will be seen. God has been preparing a people through years of walking by faith, following the leading of the Spirit of Christ, in order that they might serve as guides to His people in coming days.

Many of those who have submitted to this preparation process are little esteemed in this day. Many have endured incredible difficulty. They have been reproached, scorned, criticized and rejected. They are viewed by most in the church as the off-scouring of the world. When the church has been enjoying the comforts, pleasures and ease of the world these men and women have in many cases been led to sell their possessions, quit their jobs, and follow the Lord wherever He leads. Along with the great difficulties and trials they have encountered, there has also been observed the supernatural hand of God. Yahweh has sustained them. He has proven Himself strong on their behalf.

For some time I have had the pleasure of corresponding with an older sister in Christ named Alida. She has from time to time told me some details of the life of a man she knows who lives in her area. This man's name is Michael, and his experiences have been remarkable. The first e-mail I received from Alida expressed some concern over the actions of Michael, while at the same time being impressed that God was using him. Over time she has become greatly encouraged to believe that it is indeed the Lord who has been directing him, though few in the church would share her sentiments, and even some in Michael's own family have considered him delusional (an accusation I am not unfamiliar with myself).

Here is what I received from sister Alida the first time she wrote of Michael:

I have good friends, Michael and Judy, who have been in ministry in the past. then God called M. out to be 'set apart' into prayer and waiting, as part of preparation for the BIG things ahead. He has not worked or been in public ministry for 10 years now. He keeps saying that it is now about to be brought forth. (He reminds me of you and I told M. about you and what you've had to go through)...

For the last 2 years J. & M. were living with a friend, who had enough room for them in her condo. Now Judy is recuperating at her son's home for a month, and M. felt he could not stay with the friend any longer. So he moved out but is living in his car, and penniless except for what people (like us) will give him for gas and food. Of course, no doubt, God is using him on the streets and the testimony of that is encouraging, but..... J's son is a minister in the 'word of Faith' movement, and he is more of the persuasion that is put forth in this article. He simply says, "It doesn't line up with the Word to be perfectly capable of working, but not to do so . . ." He calls M. delusional. Moses worked, Paul worked, etc..

(One testimony of last week was that M. heard the Holy Spirit tell him to drive to a particular park 20 miles away from where he was. He questioned this at first because of the cost of gas for that many miles . . . but he went. He drove to that park, unfamiliar to him, and to a particular spot where there were many picnic tables, but only one man sitting on a table in the distance. He went to this man, said hello and asked how he was doing; 'not too good' the man answered who was drinking from a 5th of whiskey. He began to tell of his troubles and that he was finishing this bottle and then would shoot himself in the head with the gun he produced from his pocket.

M. told him god had brought him all the way to talk to him and pray for him . . . and if he would let him pray for him he would no longer want to kill himself for he was being plagued by demons etc.. The man said "Preacher, if you drove all this way for me, I guess I'll let you." So M. did and the man, after the demons were rebuked, sat there like a stone for 20 minutes and then suddenly started talking as if waking up, and said, "Wow, what happened? I NO longer want to kill myself; why did I ever think I wanted to do that?" He described how something seemed to come up all the way from his toes and throughout his body and left.

This was the first I heard of Michael, and the life God had directed him to live. Outwardly such an experience is difficult to receive as it makes little sense to the natural mind which is conditioned to judge all things by the seeing of the eyes and the hearing of the ears. The natural mind concludes that a man should always seek the natural path. If a man can work to secure a natural provision by the power of the flesh, then it stands to reason that he should work. Yet the natural man is not capable of casting demons out of a man it does not know, or arriving at a meeting in a town 20 miles away in a park that he has never before visited. Only those who are directed by the Spirit, and who look to the Spirit to perform that which man cannot, experience such things.

Yesterday, sister Alida sent me this additional testimony.

Dear Brother Joseph,

We have been reading your articles dealing with the hard times coming. Today's comments from the two people were indeed some of the thoughts we had. A few days ago I wanted to write you to tell of what is happening in our "neck of the woods" which is Michigan...

I have told you in the past about our dear friends Michael and Judy, who are true warriors in the King's army. M., like you, was asked by the Lord to stop working an outside job and to be set apart to be prepared for the task God was giving him. M. has experienced a progressive walk of the Lord (now 10 years) Y'shua teaching him, showing him many things in the unseen world, both the demonic and the heavenly realm where God dwells. He has had many visitations of Y'shua Himself and was taught how to discern appearances of angels and Satan himself, who will sometimes come in disguise. He has been sent on many 'missions' by the Lord, sometimes to help someone and to deliver someone from demonic oppression or suicide attempt in the middle of the night many miles away. But many times the Lord sends him on a trip to teach him something. Twice this last month the following happened:

a) M. was sent by the Spirit to a place about 100 miles from their home, and when he arrived the Lord told him to go another 50 miles; after waiting on the Lord for some time for instructions, the Spirit said "now you may go home." "But Lord, I have no gas left? What am I going to do? I have no money in my wallet? You will have to provide."

He began praising the Lord some more and evil spirits began to assail him with questions: How are you going to get home? How can you be so stupid? How gullible you are to think you heard from the Holy Spirit to come here? etc etc. all starting with "how."

M. said suddenly while he attempted to rebuke these spirits, the Holy Spirit spoke the answer in his heart. "HOW GREAT THOU ART." M. got out of the car and began to loudly proclaim "How GREAT THOU ART!" singing it, shouting it. Then in the midst of this the Holy Spirit spoke again: "Look in your wallet." He did. Nothing. M. continued the proclamation until again the Holy Spirit said: "Look in you wallet now." He did and found two $50 bills in his wallet. He returned home rejoicing!

b) M. was sent just one week ago on another mission and found himself about 100 miles south of Toledo. After waiting on the Lord, he heard new instructions. "Drive to Chicago." "But Lord, I have only a quarter tank of gas left. This is Your problem Lord." So he started on his way and after a while the car suddenly went sputter, sputter... M. pulled along the side of the road and said, "Lord, this is Your problem." Immediately the car went full force ahead again and he drove for many miles on nothing, even stopping the car at 2 different rest stops. Each time the car started up again.

Finally, when he was near the east coast of lake Michigan, he pulled into a rest stop again and the car died while he drove in. He had to 'muscle' the car into a parking slot. It was late at night. "Now Lord, what next? It is your problem to get me there and back." He waited on the Lord in worship and praise and meditation and prayer for several hours. Then the Holy Spirit spoke. "Look into your wallet." He looked and there was a brand new $50 bill.

M. said "Thank you Lord. That's great, but how am I going to get to a gas station? Are you going to send someone here to help me?" Suddenly the Holy Spirit spoke "Get your gallon water jug and fill it in the bathroom." He did. "Now, pour it into the tank." M. had to search for something to make a funnel. He found some cardboard and fashioned a funnel and began pouring. He said, "As soon as I started pouring I smelled the gasoline smell and it looked like gasoline!" Then M. REALLY was rejoicing and laughing. The Holy Spirit said, "You can drive home now." He arrived safely home several hours later.

This is the kind of teaching M. has been going through. Going in obedience to a place "God knows where" and then being taught something which is preparatory for the very near future. Lately these have become lessons of "supernatural provision."

I wanted to take the time to write this story in enough detail to show that it takes obedience, faith, patience, and willingness to wait upon the Lord until He determines the time for the miracle. I believe we all can expect these miracles of provision, if we truly believe and are willing and obedient to be led by the Spirit and are practiced in listening to His voice for direction.

Blessings and Peace to you in the Name of our Lord and King Y'shua, our Deliverer.

Alida

I wrote back to sister Alida the following:

Dear Sister Alida,

Thank you for sharing these things with me. Michael's experiences are truly remarkable. I do foresee a day coming shortly when all of God's children will need to RELY upon such provisions. I know some would scoff at Michael's experiences, but we read of similar things in Scriptures, and we do not scoff at them. Is it any harder for the Lord to have a coin appear in the mouth of a fish than to have $50 appear in a wallet? Is it any harder to transform water into wine than it is into gasoline?

The day is near at hand when we will find that God's grace is sufficient for all of these things. I know He will also have a provision for you.

[End Excerpt]

People of God, I have seen enough supernatural provisions from the Father that I do not stagger in unbelief when I hear a report such as this. I recognize the ways of the Father in the testimony provided. There is a reason that Yahweh is leading Michael to experience lessons in supernatural provision in this season. The people of God will need to depend on the supernatural provision of the Father in coming days.

It is the mercy of God that He is preparing a people in this hour to serve as ministers of salvation for His people in coming days. These ministers are often scorned and rejected by the very ones who will be kept alive by their ministry in days which are at hand. In this we see the pattern of Joseph and Yahshua repeated.

Joseph's brothers rejected him, treating him roughly and selling him into slavery. Yet the difficult experiences of Joseph's life prepared him to save many people alive during a time of famine. The very ones who had rejected him were saved by his ministry.

Yahshua also was rejected by His own people. He was called a heretic and a blasphemer. He was accused of having a demon. Yet by His shed blood He surrendered His life that an entire nation would not perish. He purchased the salvation of God's people by His obedience.

Revelation chapter 12 declares that God will lead the church into a wilderness experience in these last days. Yahweh will have a provision for her there. The One who caused water to flow from a rock and bread to fall from heaven, will manifest a supernatural provision for His people in that hour.

Revelation 12:6

And the woman fled into the wilderness where she had a place prepared by God, so that there she might be nourished for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

The woman will not only be physically nourished, she will be spiritually nourished as well. For many years the church has grown fat physically but has been famished spiritually. Her experience in the wilderness will remove the excess flesh and provide an environment for a spiritual creature to arise.

There will be an outpouring of the Spirit upon God's people. He will feed them on truth and righteousness. They will be cleansed of all the defilement of religious Babylon. They will be instructed by ministers who have been prepared for such a time as this, and the ways of Yahweh will be made known to His people. Many glorious things will be observed in a day of great distress.

May you be blessed with peace and understanding in these days.

Luke 4:28-30

And all in the synagogue were filled with rage as they heard these things; and they rose up and cast Him out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city had been built, in order to throw Him down the cliff. But passing through their midst, He went His way.

Have you ever paused to consider what actually happened in the event described above? How did Christ pass through the midst of a people who were intent on casting Him over a cliff? Recently I received a testimony of a sister in Christ who was given a similar experience as God was demonstrating to her about that which a firstfruits group of His sons and daughters will experience in days not far ahead. I will include this word here.

A Taste Of The Walk To Come
Olivia Reitz Long (February 19, 2009)

After reading the different messages the people posted on the 16th, all under the title of "The Rapture of the Manchild," I wanted to write and tell you what He did in 2003. My daughter was still living back in PA (my home until 2001 when I came to TX).

Prior to 2003, years before, He had been teaching me about the Manchild, The Sons of Glory. I remember the first night He talked to me about this.... I was sitting on my front deck at dusk, where I would go to meet with the Lord. He began to tell me about this -- prior to that just one week before, a lady said that very soon, Father would tell me something that would blow my mind. And when He began, I would say 'out loud': (wouldn't be able to contain myself) "Oh my God, Oh, my God, Oh my God." (three times) I thought, well almost anyone knows what 'very soon' can mean when He says it -- a month, six months, a year or years down the road. Little did I know that it would occur just one week later. (oh, how He loves to prove us wrong and surprise us.)

When Father began speaking to me about this, I heard myself saying, out loud "Oh my God, Oh my God, Oh my God." I remember placing my hand over my mouth, remembering what she had said to me one week before. (And it did happen very soon, in our timing) I sat there mesmerized listening to every word intently. I thought to myself, - "I am a part of this?" Of course He knew what I was thinking and He just said "yes, you are."

In Nov. of 2003, my daughter had twin boys. I did not have any money to fly back to see them and I thought I would be ok with that, but found that I wanted to see them so badly and I was having a hard time dealing with it.... I went on the net and e-mailed my mailing list and asked them to pray for me that my mind would be eased. (That was all I asked of them) One couple in KY wrote and said I would have round trip tickets waiting for me at the commuter airport, and then to Houston to fly to Pittsburgh, then to drive to my home town to see the boys. Another dear lady sent me $500 for whatever else I needed (i.e. rental car, food, whatever) - a couple of others sent what they could, $10, etc. Bless God!

I went to the commuter airport and while I was waiting to board the plane, Father said to me "you will have an encounter with me before you arrive back in TX." I was elated, as you can imagine. I flew to PA, was there for five days, nothing happened. No encounter! I checked my e-mail at my daughter's and a person said that I would have an encounter with God sometime during this trip....confirmation! I flew from Pittsburgh, back to Houston and from there back to the commuter airport. Still no encounter!

The plane was the largest of the commuters and it was packed full of passengers. I was sitting in the back seat. As we taxied up to the terminal, I almost cried, feeling I had not gotten the encounter. When the passengers were deplaning, I got up to leave and found my purse strap was caught in the side of the seat, I couldn't get it free. By the time I freed it, all the passengers were off and in the terminal. Finally I was able to leave. Outside, two flight attendants grinned and said here's our lost sheep. I just smiled at them, a little dejected, well maybe more than a little.

I went to the terminal, there were automatic glass sliding doors and the moment the doors opened and I stepped over the threshold, the encounter began. I knew it, something seemed different and it was as though I was walking in two different atmospheres, walking there as an actual person in the natural, but yet walking in another realm as well. Father spoke and said, remember what I told you before? I am giving you a taste of what it will be like when you are walking in this, and this "taste" will last for three days. My ride was standing in the lobby talking to someone. (By the way, they were having some kind of problem getting all the luggage off the plane for the passengers, the airport employees said they never experienced anything like this, we know Who arranged the delay.)

I walked around, went over to my ride and it was as though I was not there, I really was, but they couldn't see me. I heard them talking, but they did not look my way. I walked round about between passengers, families and friends, but no one seemed to see me. At one point, a man was walking right at me and then he was behind me. Father said to go to the restroom and look in the mirror. I thought I would be invisible or something, but I could see myself, I looked different but yet the same, I looked much better, younger and even stronger, and I could tell the energy was within me, His energy. I noted that at one moment I looked translucent and then would appear just as any other person. I went back to the terminal and the baggage was coming through.

We stopped at a restaurant to get a bite to eat and this couple began talking to us, idle chit chat, as it were, I didn't say much because all I could think of was I just wanted to keep walking in this forever. I did for the three days, just as He said, then it left, just as He said. But before it left, He said "This is how it will happen, I will come and each of you will be transformed just as quickly, as when you stepped through the door, seemingly all was as normal, the same as my own currently walk in the world, but "in a split nanosecond, that twinkling of an eye, you were "changed" and that is how it will be when I come upon all of you. You have no idea of exactly when I will do this, but be prepared and never doubt for a moment, no matter what anyone says to you, that it shall happen, because it WILL happen and much sooner than any of you can imagine and just as you went from one moment to the next (with no inkling of what would occur), you shall be changed, it will happen the same way with all of you.. So stay close to Me, don't doubt, don't allow the nay-sayers to dissuade you in any way, trust and have faith in Me that it's DONE and EXPECT!...

I just want to add one of the experiences that He gave me during those three days.

I was going about my life, as usual, in the natural but also being in the other realm. One day I had to go to the store. I was going down this narrow aisle and there were two people standing in the middle of the aisle. I was about to say "excuse me" so I could go past them, when Father said to just walk between them. My thoughts said "but there is no more than two feet between them." He just said "do it." I walked between them and they never knew it happened. Awesome to say the least.

Olivia Reitz Long

I believe this which sister Olivia experienced is the same thing that Yahshua experienced that day on the top of the hill as the people were enraged with fury and intent on casting Him down. We also read other experiences of the Lord where the same things must have surely occurred.

John 8:59

Therefore they picked up stones to throw at Him; but Yahshua hid Himself, and went out of the temple.

John 12:36-37

These things Yahshua spoke, and He departed and hid Himself from them.

People of God, when the Jews picked up stones to cast at Yahshua when He stood in the temple we are told that He hid Himself. He did not duck and run. He did not play hide and seek. A change came over His physical body where He was no longer visible to the people and He was able to pass right through their midst in a way very similar (I believe) to that which Olivia described when a man passed right through her in the crowded airport terminal.

Our Father is able to change things in this physical world anytime that He chooses. There were numerous times when we read after the resurrection of Christ that His appearance was changed and the disciples did not recognize Him. Yet He was able to open their eyes to recognize Him at will.

And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem. And they were conversing with each other about all these things which had taken place. And it came about that while they were conversing and discussing, Yahshua Himself approached, and began traveling with them. But their eyes were prevented from recognizing Him... And it came about that when He had reclined at the table with them, He took the bread and blessed it, and breaking it, He began giving it to them. And their eyes were opened and they recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight.

I have shared previously in writings on the ascension of the manchild, that Joseph, the son of Jacob, serves as a type of the manchild. Even as we read in Revelation 12 that the manchild is caught up to the throne of God, so too do we read of Joseph in a single day being taken from the dungeon of Pharaoh and ascending to a place of ruling over the nation.

We find a very interesting parallel in Joseph's experience to that of Yahshua. Yahshua came to His own people, but they did not recognize Him for who He was, their Messiah. We have seen in the verse we have looked at that there were times when those who were very close to Him did not recognize Him, for His appearance seemed changed in their sight. So too is this pattern observed in the life of Joseph.

Genesis 42:7-8

When Joseph saw his brothers he recognized them, but he disguised himself to them... But Joseph had recognized his brothers, although they did not recognize him.

We see that Joseph was able by an act of his will to either disguise himself, or reveal himself to his brothers. His appearance had changed much in the years since they had last seen him, and so too will the appearance of those who are part of the manchild be changed. For the manchild company, their brothers in Christ and close associates will not recognize them. They will appear different, yet they will be able to disclose themselves to their brothers when the time is deemed right.

Genesis 45:1

Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried, "Have everyone go out from me." So there was no man with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

In each type of the manchild that God has given to us we see this aspect of them being transformed and their appearance being different. We see that they are able to hide themselves at will, and appear at will.

The Spirit has also been testifying that Moses is a type of the manchild. When the people of Israel entered the wilderness, Moses ascended the mount to meet with God. This is a parallel event to the manchild of Revelation 12 ascending to the throne of God, and a parallel to Joseph being brought before Pharaoh. When Moses came back down from the mount his appearance was changed.

Exodus 34:29-31, 33-35

And it came about when Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the testimony were in Moses' hand as he was coming down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because of his speaking with Him. So when Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him... When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. But whenever Moses went in before Yahweh to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out; and whenever he came out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded, the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. So Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

Moses placing the veil over his face serves as a shadow of that experience which is to come to the people of God who will be part of the manchild company. Moses was able to veil himself whenever he chose, and to unveil himself when he chose. We see the fulfillment of this in the life of Christ as He was able to veil Himself so that those close to Him did not recognize His form, yet they knew it was Him whenever He chose to open their understanding.

John 21:4-8, 12

But when the day was now breaking, Yahshua stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Yahshua. Yahshua therefore said to them, "Children, you do not have any fish, do you?" They answered Him, "No." And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you will find a catch." They cast therefore, and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish. That disciple therefore whom Yahshua loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." And so when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put his outer garment on (for he was stripped for work), and threw himself into the sea... None of the disciples ventured to question Him, "Who are You?" knowing that it was the Lord.

We see here that Yahshua is able to selectively choose whom among His disciples are able to recognize Him and who are not. At first no one recognizes it is Christ. Then only John recognizes Him. After they come ashore all of the disciples recognize that it is the Lord.

A year ago while I was spending a month camping and seeking the Lord about the character of the upcoming ministry, He spoke to me through this event recorded in Scripture. John tells us the following concerning this event.

John 21:14

This is now the third time that Yahshua was manifested to the disciples, after He was raised from the dead.

The third appearance of Christ speaks prophetically of the manner in which Christ will appear to His people at the end of the age. He will appear in a manner that many will fail to recognize, but some will. His third appearing will be in a form that many did not expect, for He will appear IN HIS SAINTS, not on the clouds of the heavens as many have been taught to expect.

II Thessalonians 1:7-10

The Lord Yahshua shall be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, dealing out retribution to those who do not know God and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Yahshua. And these will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, *when He comes to be glorified IN HIS SAINTS on that day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed...

Joseph was adorned in glorious array on the day he ascended from the dungeon to the throne of Pharaoh. Moses was adorned with glory when he ascended the mount to the presence of God. Yahshua was adorned in glory when He ascended the mount of transfiguration, and He now resides in glory. And the manchild will also experience a similar transformation.

In coming days there will be a group of firstfruits overcomers who will ascend to the throne of God and they will be transformed. When they go out among the people they will be able to hide themselves and appear at will. We read of Christ appearing suddenly inside a locked room in the midst of His disciples. They thought He must be a ghost so He asked for a piece of fish and ate it before them. He invited them to touch Him. He was solid and substantial, yet he was able to transform into something else at will.

People of God, these are remarkable things, yet they will be seen among a remnant in days that are not far off.

May you be blessed with peace and understanding in these days.

The Supernatural Character of Coming Days - Part 3
Joseph Herrin (03-08-09)

VISION OF THE BODY OF CHRIST AND THE END-TIME MINISTRIES
Reported by Tommy Hicks, Evangelist (July 25, 1961)

My message begins July 25, about 2:30 in the morning at Winnipeg, Canada. I had hardly fallen asleep when the vision and the revelation that God gave me came before me. The vision came three times, exactly in detail, the morning of July 25, 1961. I was so stirred and so moved by the revelation that this has changed my complete outlook upon the body of Christ, and upon the end-time ministries.

The greatest thing that the church of Jesus Christ has ever been given lies straight ahead. It is so hard to help men and women to realize and understand the thing that God is trying to give his people in the end times.

I received a letter several weeks ago from one of our native evangelists down in Africa, down in Nairobi. This man and his wife were on their way to Tanganyika. They could neither read nor could they write, but we had been supporting them for over two years. As they entered into the territory of Tanganyika, they came across a small village. The entire village was evacuating because of a plague that had hit the village. He came across natives that were weeping, and he asked them what was wrong.

They told him of their mother and father who had suddenly died, and they had been dead for three days. They had to leave. They were afraid to go in; they were leaving them in the cottage. He turned and asked them where they were. They pointed to the hut and he asked them to go with him, but they refused. They were afraid to go.

The native and his wife went to this little cottage and entered in where the man and woman had been dead for three days. He simply stretched forth his hand in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and spoke the man's name and the woman's name and said, "In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I command life to come back to your bodies." Instantaneously these two heathen people who had never known Jesus Christ as their Savior sat up and immediately began to praise God. The spirit and the power of God came into the life of those people.

To us that may seem strange and a phenomenon, but that is the beginning of these end-time ministries. God is going to take the do-nothings, the nobodies, the unheard-of, the no-accounts; He is going to take every man and every woman, and he is going to give to them this outpouring of the Spirit of God.

In the book of Acts we read that "In the last days," God said, "I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh." I wonder if we realized what He meant when God said, "I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh." I do not think I fully realized, nor could I understand the fullness of it, and then I read from the book of Joel: "Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain -" (Joel 2:23). It is not only going to be the rain, the former rain and the latter rain, but he is going to give to his people in these last days a double portion of the power of God!

As the vision appeared to me after I was asleep, I suddenly found myself in a great high distance. Where I was, I do not know. But I was looking down upon the earth. Suddenly the whole earth came into my view. Every nation, every kindred, every tongue came before my sight from the east and the west, the north and the south. I recognized every country and many cities that I had been in, and I was almost in fear and trembling as I beheld the great sight before me: and at that moment when the world came into view, it began to lightning and thunder.

As the lightning flashed over the face of the earth, my eyes went downward and I was facing the north. Suddenly I beheld what looked like a great giant, and as I stared and looked at it, I was almost bewildered by the sight. It was so gigantic and so great. His feet seemed to reach to the north pole and his head to the south. Its arms were stretched from sea to sea. I could not even begin to understand whether this be a mountain or this be a giant, but as I watched, I suddenly beheld a great giant. I could see his head was struggling for life. He wanted to live, but his body was covered with debris from head to foot, and at times this great giant would move his body and act as though it would even raise up at times. And when it did, thousands of little creatures seemed to run away. Hideous creatures would run away from this giant, and when he would become calm, they would come back.

All of a sudden this great giant lifted his hand toward heaven, and then it lifted its other hand, and when it did these creatures by the thousands seemed to flee away from this giant and go into the darkness of the night.

Slowly this great giant began to rise and as he did, his head and hands went into the clouds. As he rose to his feet he seemed to have cleansed himself from the debris and filth that was upon him, and he began to raise his hands into the heavens as though praising the Lord, and as he raised his hands, they went even unto the clouds.

Suddenly, every cloud became silver, the most beautiful silver I have ever known. As I watched this phenomenon it was so great I could not even begin to understand what it all meant. I was so stirred as I watched it, and I cried unto the Lord and I said, "Oh Lord, what is the meaning of this?" and I felt as if I was actually in the Spirit and I could feel the presence of the Lord even as I was asleep.

And from those clouds suddenly there came great drops of liquid light raining down upon this mighty giant, and slowly, slowly, this giant began to melt, began to sink itself in the very earth itself, and as he melted, his whole form seemed to have melted upon the face of the earth, and this great rain began to come down. Liquid drops of light began to flood the very earth itself and as I watched this giant that seemed to melt, suddenly it became millions of people over the face of the earth. As I beheld the sight before me, people stood up all over the world! They were lifting their hands and they were praising the Lord.

At that very moment there came a great thunder that seemed to roar from the heavens. I turned my eyes toward the heavens and suddenly I saw a figure in white, in glistening white the most glorious thing that I have ever seen in my entire life. I did not see the face, but somehow I knew it was the Lord Jesus Christ, and he stretched forth his hand, and as he did, he would stretch it forth to one, and to another, and to another. And as he stretched forth his hand upon the nations and the people of the world, men and women as he pointed toward them, this liquid light seemed to flow from his hands into them, and a mighty anointing of God came upon them, and those people began to go forth in the name of the Lord.

I do not know how long I watched it. It seemed it went into days and weeks and months. And I beheld this Christ as he continued to stretch forth his hand; but there was a tragedy. There were many people as he stretched forth his hand that refused the anointing of God and the call of God. I saw men and women that I knew. People that I felt would certainly receive the call of God. But as he stretched forth his hand toward this one and toward that one, they simply bowed their head and began to back away. And each of those that seemed to bow down and back away, seemed to go into darkness. Blackness seemed to swallow them everywhere.

I was bewildered as I watched it, but these people that he had anointed, hundreds of thousands of people all over the world, in Africa, England, Russia, China, America, all over the world, the anointing of God was upon these people as they went forward in the name of the Lord. I saw these men and women as they went forth. They were ditch diggers, they were washerwomen, they were rich men, they were poor men. I saw people who were bound with paralysis and sickness and blindness and deafness. As the Lord stretched forth to give them this anointing, they became well, they became healed, and they went forth!

And this is the miracle of it, this is the glorious miracle of it, those people would stretch forth their hands exactly as the Lord did, and it seemed as if there was this same liquid fire in their hands. As they stretched forth their hands they said, "According to my word, be thou made whole."

As these people continued in this mighty end-time ministry, I did not fully realize what it was, and I looked to the Lord and said, "What is the meaning of this?" And he said, "This is that which I will do in the last days. I will restore all that the cankerworm, the palmerworm, the caterpillar, I will restore all that they have destroyed. This, my people, in the end times will go forth. As a mighty army shall they sweep over the face of the earth."

As I was at this great height, I could behold the whole world. I watched these people as they were going to and fro over the face of the earth. Suddenly there was a man in Africa and in a moment he was transported by the Spirit of God, and perhaps he was in Russia, or China or America or some other place, and vice versa. All over the world these people went, and they came through fire, and through pestilence, and through famine. Neither fire nor persecution, nothing seemed to stop them.

Angry mobs came to them with swords and with guns. And like Jesus, they passed through the multitudes and they could not find them, but they went forth in the name of the Lord, and everywhere they stretched forth their hands, the sick were healed, the blind eyes were opened. There was not a long prayer, and after I had reviewed the vision many times in my mind, and I thought about it many times, I realized that I never saw a church, and I never saw or heard a denomination, but these people were going in the name of the Lord of Hosts. Hallelujah!

As they marched forth in everything they did as the ministry of Christ in the end times, these people were ministering to the multitudes over the face of the earth. Tens of thousands, even millions seemed to come to the Lord Jesus Christ as these people stood forth and gave the message of the kingdom, of the coming kingdom, in this last hour. It was so glorious, but it seems as though there were those that rebelled, and they would become angry and they tried to attack those workers that were giving the message.

God is going to give the world a demonstration in this last hour as the world has never known. These men and women are of all walks of life, degrees will mean nothing. I saw these workers as they were going over the face of the earth. When one would stumble and fall, another would come and pick him up. There were no "big I" and "little you," but every mountain was brought low and every valley was exalted, and they seemed to have one thing in common, there was a divine love, a divine love that seemed to flow forth from these people as they worked together, and as they lived together. It was the most glorious sight that I have ever known. Jesus Christ was the theme of their life. They continued and it seemed the days went by as I stood and beheld this sight. I could only cry, and sometimes I laughed. It was so wonderful as these people went throughout the face of the whole earth, bringing forth in this last end time.

As I watched from the very heaven itself, there were times when great deluges of this liquid light seemed to fall upon great congregations, and that congregation would lift up their hands and seemingly praise God for hours and even days as the Spirit of God came upon them. God said, "I will pour my Spirit upon all flesh," and that is exactly this thing. And to every man and every woman that received this power, and the anointing of God, the miracles of God, there was no ending to it.

We have talked about miracles. We have talked about signs and wonders, but I could not help but weep as I read again this morning, at 4 o'clock this morning the letter from our native workers. This is only the evidence of the beginning for one man, a "do-nothing," an "unheard-of," who would go and stretch forth his hand and say, "In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I command life to flow into your body." I dropped to my knees and began to pray again, and I said, "Lord, I know that this time is coming soon!"

And then again, as these people were going about the face of the earth, a great persecution seemed to come from every angle.

Suddenly there was another great clap of thunder, that seemed to resound around the world, and I heard again the voice, the voice that seemed to speak, "Now this is my people. This is my beloved bride." And when the voice spoke, I looked upon the earth and I could see the lakes and the mountains. The graves were opened and people from all over the world, the saints of all ages, seemed to be rising. And as they rose from the grave, suddenly all these people came from every direction. From the east and the west, from the north and the south, and they seemed to be forming again this gigantic body. As the dead in Christ seemed to be rising first, I could hardly comprehend it. It was so marvelous. It was so far beyond anything I could ever dream or think of.

But as this body suddenly began to form, and take shape again, it took shape again in the form of this mighty giant, but this time it was different. It was arrayed in the most beautiful gorgeous white. Its garments were without spot or wrinkle as its body began to form, and the people of all ages seemed to be gathered into this body, and slowly, slowly, as it began to form up into the very heavens, suddenly from the heavens above, the Lord Jesus came, and became the head, and I heard another clap of thunder that said, "This is my beloved bride for whom I have waited. She will come forth even tried by fire. This is she that I have loved from the beginning of time."

As I watched, my eyes suddenly turned to the far north, and I saw seemingly destruction: men and women in anguish and crying out, and buildings in destruction. Then I heard again, the fourth voice that said, "Now is My wrath being poured out upon the face of the earth." From the ends of the whole world, the wrath of God seemed to be poured out and it seemed that there were great vials of God's wrath being poured out upon the face of the earth. I can remember it as though it happened a moment ago. I shook and trembled as I beheld the awful sight of seeing the cities, and whole nations going down into destruction.

I could hear the weeping and wailing. I could hear people crying. They seemed to cry as they went into caves, but the caves in the mountains opened up.

They leaped into water, but the water would not drown them. There was nothing that could destroy them. They were wanting to take their lives, but they could not. Then again I turned my eyes to this glorious sight, this body arrayed in beautiful white, shining garments. Slowly, slowly, it began to lift from the earth, and as it did, I awoke. What a sight I had beheld! I had seen the end-time ministries the last hour. Again on July 27, at 2:30 in the morning, the same revelation, the same vision came again exactly as it did before.

My life has been changed as I realized that we are living in that end time, for all over the world God is anointing men and women with this ministry. It will not be doctrine. It will not be a churchianity. It is going to be Jesus Christ. They will give forth the word of the Lord, and are going to say, "I heard it so many times in the vision and according to my word it shall be done."
